Zoe Henry

Legal experience

22 Nicholas Street Chambers, Chester

Zoe spent a week in chambers with a senior criminal barrister and his current pupil. She was able to spend several days in court becoming familiar with court etiquette and practice.

Eversheds LLP Nottingham

Zoe secured a week at Eversheds working predominantly with the marketing and HR team. She was involved in anything from assisting with the organisation of employment law events evenings, to shadowing two newly qualified solicitors.

Positions of responsibility

Pro Bono Society – Vice President

Zoe was elected Vice President at the end of her second year of University study and held the position until graduation. The society launched various legal advice programmes as well as being involved in work within the wider community. The Society was awarded the Attorney General's Pro Bono Award in the category "best contribution by a team of students".

Zoe continued her Pro Bono work at Nottingham Law School where she helped to co-ordinate a project entitled "Bars in Their Eyes" which aims to educate prisoners about the Rehabilitation of Offenders Act and its implications.

UNICEF Society – Campaign Secretary

Zoe was appointed as Campaign Secretary during her second year at Nottingham University. The role required her to research particular campaigns, make informative presentations to the society members and organise fundraising events.
